KENYA & ZANZIBAR
 A safari followed by an Indian Ocean beach flop is a classic honeymoon combo. Ol Seki Hemingways Mara Camp is an intimate safari camp. Its 10 designer ensuite tents have vast wooden decks with far reaching views of the Mara Plains. Located on a ridge in the private Naboiho Conservancy, honeymooners are far from the density of vehicles in the main Mara Reserve. They can opt for night drives and game walks, moonlit bush dinners and bush breakfasts or listen to tales of hunter gatherer days as told by a local Ndosobo tribe member. Twin with the new White Sand Luxury Villas & Spa in Zanzibar, set on the white sands of Paje, one of the finest beaches on the island's eastern shores. It's serene and private with earthy tones and unobtrusive architecture, and what's more, it's a sustainable sanctuary. Even The Spa uses local products, namely seaweed, coconut and spices. Each villa has an outdoor bathtub, a rainshower to wash away the sea salt, a rooftop terrace and a starbed for gazing at the Spice Island's starlit skies.
 The Turquoise Holiday Company offers 3 nights on safari at Ol Seki Hemingways Mara Camp with 7 nights at White Sand Luxury Villas & Spa (with upgrade to half
