Zanzibar White Sand Relais & Châteaux 2017 Review:

Zanzibar White Sand has set its anchor down along the eastern coast of the archipelago of Zanzibar. In the heart of a luxurious yet fragile ecosystem, the establishment has had the finesse to integrate itself in complete discretion. Several villas are nestled in the tropical vegetation, refreshed by the Indian Ocean. The restaurant serves local fish and produce from the orchard-vegetable garden, which are subtly enhanced by the famous spices of Zanzibar that may also be found as the foundations for the spa's original treatments. Whether diving or kitesurfing, the warm turquoise waters of the beach are the ideal playground after a safari on continental Africa. The key word of your stay? Hakuna matata, which means "no problem" in Swahili.
